Late registration: September 6 through "pay at the door," $25 per student

ABOUT SCOTT....

For almost a decade, Scott has been educating and entertaining student and adult audiences of all ages through his workshops and keynote presentations. Scott consistently finds creative ways to ensure laughter in learning as he provides attendees the tools necessary to deal with their own lives, their organizations, or their schools. He not only provides an insightful educational presentation, but also provides his audiences direction on how to implement their new-found knowledge into action.

Scott received his Bachelor of Music Education in the Fall of 1988 and completed his Masters Degree in Secondary Educational Administration in 1996. Scott has taught in the secondary school setting in East Los Angeles, California, and Tempe, Arizona. During his professional tenure his bands performed at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade, Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship, the Arizona Music Educator's Convention and M.E.N.C.'s Biennial Conference with the CANADIAN BRASS. In 2003, Mr. Lang was named as one of "50 Directors Who Care" by SBO magazine.

Scott is the author of Leadership Success, Leadership Travel Guide, and Leadership Survival Guide, all dealing with the development of student leadership and available through GIA Publications.
